

2011 Vancouver Island Emergency Preparedness Conference

For Emergency Volunteers and Staff

Sooke, British Columbia, April 15th-17th, 2011

What is the Vancouver Island Emergency Preparedness (VIEP) Conference?

The VIEP Conference is organized by volunteers for volunteers. It brings together dedicated emergency preparedness and response personnel to learn new skills, share experiences and information, and to renew their commitment to helping island communities in times of need. The conference consists of guest speakers, numerous breakout sessions, a networking reception and booth displays.

Breakout session at the 2006 VIEP Conference, Esquimalt

Who attends the VIEP Conference?

Emergency volunteers and staff from a variety of organizations benefit from conference attendance. Organizations regularly in attendance include:

- Search and Rescue
- Auxiliary Communications
- Emergency Social Services
- Community-based organizations
- St. John's Ambulance
- First Nations Emergency Services
- Neighbourhood programs
- Canadian Red Cross
- Salvation Army
- Occupational Safety and Health
- Disaster animal response groups

The 2011 VIEP Conference is proudly hosted by the District of Sooke and the Capital Region Emergency Awareness Network (CREAN).

Where: Prestige Ocean Front Resort & Convention Centre, Sooke, BC.

When: April 15-17th, 2011

Friday night display at the VIEP Conference

For more information on the 2011 Vancouver Island Emergency Preparedness Conference check out:

<http://www.viepconference.ca/>

"The best resources we have in an emergency or disaster are our partnerships and knowledge. The VIEP conference allows people to come together in an ideal setting of open sharing and networking."

- VIEP Conference Participant

Be a part of Vancouver Island emergency preparedness!

VIEP Conference Society

c/o 909 Fairfield Rd.
Victoria, BC
V8V 3A3
info@viepconference.ca